You left me here stuck in the same old place
I don't move an inch in case you come back
I've waited for so long, did you lose your way?
Things around me seem to change but I feel the same

You always ran away when things got tough
And never spoke a word to a living soul
Living in secrecy, that's all you knew
Hiding in the same place we got through

It was my fault that you disappeared again
So I'll wait here for you until you return
I want to go out and look for you
But by the time I'm there you'll be gone too

And this chase will never end
Everybody tells me it's because you're dead
They say that you took away your own life
I try to tell myself maybe it's just a lie

For all the crazy, the love and moments that we shared
And all the hurting since you've been gone that I've had to bear

And it breaks me to come to see
That all this time who was really waiting was you for me
