we are old familiar friends
you and I
time collapses
and you are still here

I can feel the days blending into a suffocating loop when are you leaving?

I try to remember the times when I was happy,
but my brain just decided to
erase them

I betrayed myself,
my intrusive thoughts
are drowning me

thanks to you
I'm emotionless,
living in a consistent torture
when is it going to end?

please, let me escape
please, leave me alone
